INSTRUCTIONS

1. Use 2 coats of Just Blue to paint the outside of the mug.
2. While the outside is drying, paint 3 coats of Sunnyside Up on the inside of your mug.
3. When the outside of the mug is completely dry, use your marker to sketch on your candles. We started with a taller candle on the opposite side of the mug from the handle. Then there are 4 smaller candles on each side of the taller one. You should have 9 candles in all.
4. Paint in your candles in your desired colors with 3 coats of paint. We didn't do any of the candles with yellow since we will use that for the flames.
5. Paint in all the flames with 2 coats of Sunnyside Up and then put one dab of Squash Blossom toward the bottom of each flame.
6. While those are drying you can paint the handle with 3 coats of your desired color, we used Ocean Scape.
7. Finally, use your liner brush to make a messy outline on each candle and each flame using Licorice. We added a little water to the paint to help thin it down. We then used the same liner brush and Licorice paint to apply either dots or stripes to the candle.

TIPS

- Three coats of paint will make solid colors that pop.
- The water based marker will disappear in the kiln, so don't worry if you make a mistake with it.
- If you want the dots to be the same size, dip the end into paint each time you stamp it down.
